

Rehman Chishti MP Gillingham and Rainham

Rehman Chishti has been MP for Gillingham and Rainham since 2010. After completing a Law degree at the University of Wales Aberystwyth, he was called to the Bar of England and Wales at Lincolns Inn.

Rehman grew up in Gillingham, where he represented both Gillingham and Rainham as a Councillor before standing for Parliament, serving on the Cabinet of Medway Council. He cares passionately about the community where he grew up.

Rehman chaired the All-Party Parliamentary Group on Pakistan until September 2019, and in September 2016, he setup the APPG for Community Engagement to help parliamentarians to be aware of, and respond to, the various issues and challenges facing members of the diverse communities in the UK. Rehman also served as the Chair of the Conservative Foreign and Commonwealth Council until March 2021 and is currently an Executive Member of the British American Parliamentary Group.

Away from Parliament, Rehman enjoys going to the gym, running, watching the Gills, playing cricket and squash, catching a movie and spending time with friends and family.
